THE BEAVERS' ROUND TOUR

Navigating on the Rhône in Valence, where the river reaches 80% of its total flow is always impressive. The Rhône River shows a modern picture with its industrial installations and its river traffic which we have to deal with (but there is enough room for everyone) and we can find the charming and quiet old Rhône River, dominated by the Crussol Castle, a medieval fortress of the 12th century or the Soyons tower. The rowing tour starts from the Épervière port, the first harbour in inner waters in France, which alone is worth visiting. The layout enables to see very contrasting navigation conditions: bucolic and peaceful on the old Rhône River, more animated and sometimes a bit windy (the so-called "mistral", a northerly wind) on the navigable part. But the efforts are made up for by a festive part which makes the tour very famous. The accompanying persons can discover the old centre, the maison des Têtes and the trails of Napoléon's crossing, who was then a simple lieutenant. Valence is a gastronomy city too, surrounded by famous vineyards.
