ROWING LEVEL

A stone throw away from Paris, the Aviron Marne Joinville club offers a beautiful tour along the peaceful Marne shores. It is where the guinguettes are found, century old cabarets, and symbol of the Marne culture. You will depart from the Ile Fanac and row upstream up to the Château de Champs-sur-Marne, where you'll be able to take the time of a visit and a lunch in the park. You will enjoy the countryside that the Marne offers, as you row away from the cityscape. You will discover the meanders between islands of wild nature : the Ile des Loups, Ile d'Amour, and Ile du Moulin. You will pass by the Passerelle des Arts, which once spanned the Seine near the Louvre in Paris, and under the railway bridge of Nogent-Sur-Marne and Bry-sur-Marne foot-bridge, built by Gustave Eiffel. You will berth on the Chelles beach, near the ruin of an ancient mill. This tour also sports a number of architectural sights, many of them villas which used to belong to celebrities.
