START/FINISH

Cercle Nautique des Régates Rémoises

Between the town and the countryside, this tour will allow you to discover the capital of Champagne and the vineyard covered slopes of the Champagne region; you will enjoy an interesting visit of a cave and a champagne tasting. The round trip follows the canal connecting the river Aisne and the river Marne and borders the "green belt" of the city of Reims, much appreciated by runners and bikers. All along this journey, you will also be able to gaze at the great historical benchmarks of the City of Coronations. You have an appointment with History at the Basilique Saint Rémi, which dominates the canal; then you will admire the cathedral, a masterpiece of Gothic architecture with its twin towers and finally the Reims Convention Center, with its shape of a big futuristic ocean liner. Then you will cross the yachting harbour. And afterwards, nature quickly replaces the urban area with numerous duck families on a small island; you will arrive in Courcy, a pleasant farming village between fields and forests. Because of unexpected curves, water bodies and the presence of many fishermen or moored barges, rowers must really sail. Accompanying people will be able to tag along with bikes or spend the morning discovering Reims, listed as a UNESCO world cultural heritage site. Let's mention the famous champagne vineyards nearby and also numerous places of remembrance of World War 1, including the museum "Fort de la Pompelle" and the "chemin des Dames"...
